- b. Coordinate the programs for the utilization of the capabilities of each of the departments and agencies of the government for the procurement of foreign publications to meet the needs of the departments and agencies of the government. Such coordination shall not prejudice the maintenance of facilities and activities necessary to meet departmental needs.
3. There is hereby established the Committee on Procurement of Foreign Publications, an interdepartmental committee under the chairmanship of the Central Intelligence Agency. Members of the IAC shall designate representatives to this committee. Other departments and agencies of the government may be invited by the Committee to participate in discussions of matters in which they have an interest. The Committee shall advise and assist the Central Intelligence Agency in the implementation of this Directive.
